The CRS Rally School is 2 weeks away!

Written by Darth Eddie Thursday, 26 January 2017 21:21

The California Rally Series Rally School is in two weeks - do you know anyone who might be interested in attending? The date is in Ridgecrest.

Sat urday, February 11

Many CRS rallyists and rallycross competitors got a good start in their sport at this annual school - perhaps you were one of them! Think of potential teammates, members of your service crew, rally volunteers who might enjoy this day-long, hands-on event. The school includes lunch, dinner, and a notebook, with both classroom instruction and in-car training (rally or rallycross driving, or rally co-driving) with experienced competitors. School participants get two other bonuses: a 2017 CRS membership, and a discounted entry fee ($40) to Sunday's Ridgecrest Rallycross I.

Thanks for spreading the word! The website for info and registration is http://crsrallyschool.co m/

See you there! The CRS Rally School Team