

2011 Desert Storm Rally right around the corner!

Written by Darth Eddie

Friday, 18 February 2011 09:56

In less than 2 weeks, the inaugural event of the 2011 California Rally Series, 2011 Southwest RallyCup, and 2011 Rally America Southwest Regional Series all kick off in Blythe, California at the 2011 Desert Storm Rally.

As usual, organizers Denise and Pat McMahon are setting the bar in regards to what they have in store for competitors. Thousands of dollars in prize money and awards, 3 days of fast and smooth desert roads, and events planned with the Lucas Oil Track and town of Blythe are just some of what's in store for competitors. There is just too much to list here so head over to the rally website for more details: Desert Storm Rally Website .

Desert Storm is certainly The Regional Rally with a National Flair, come out and see why!!!